Item 8.01 Other Events

Since the filing of the Company's Quarterly Report on November 9, 2004, in which the Company announced the filing against it of two class action lawsuits related to the Company's lawsuit with Worldwide Wrestling Entertainment, Inc. ("WWE"), two additional lawsuits seeking class action status were filed against the Company and its senior officers which seek to represent purchasers of the Company's common stock with respect to the same subject matter as is involved in the two class actions previously disclosed in the Company's Quarterly Report. The plaintiffs in the class are described in each of these new actions as purchasers of the Company's common stock, with the dates of purchase varying from between February 17, 2000 and October 19, 2004 in one action to February 16, 2004 and October 19, 2004 in the second action.

Two additional actions were filed on November 9, and November 15, 2004, both of which relate to the Company's lawsuit with WWE. However, the allegations in these two actions are that there was an actionable failure to disclose that the Company had obtained the WWE license through its participation in an unlawful bribery scheme. These two actions further seek to represent a class of purchasers of our stock from October 26, 1999 to October 19, 2004.

The Company believes that the claims underlying all of the class actions are without merit and intends to defend vigorously against them.
